

2023 EJ FUND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CONSULTANTS

The Environmental Justice Fund Technical Assistance Consultants are available to clarify EJ Fund funding priorities, discuss project ideas for EJ Fund alignment, review draft proposals and provide high level feedback, as well as provide high-level edits. Meet the 2023 consultants:

Carina del Rosario, an immigrant from the Philippines, was raised in California and has lived in Seattle since 1992. She has used her experiences as a communications professional and cultural worker to serve Black, Brown, Indigenous and Asian communities and groups that have been marginalized. She has worked as a grant writer, grants administrator, facilitator, educator, journalist and communications consultant. She is also an artist who uses visual art and writing to build community.

Nanette Fok is a grantwriting consultant working with nonprofit agencies based in the greater Seattle area. She has the privilege of helping to build the capacity and sustainability of organizations that support the health, well-being and empowerment of innumerable community members. She has worked in fundraising and organizational development for over 20 years, with broad-based experience that includes foundation and government grantseeking, grantmaking, individual donor development, special events coordination and strategic planning. She currently sits on the boards of Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience and Mu Films.
